In connection with this event, organized for employees of the BUD group and their relatives, including children and friends, the data controller will request personal data from the data subjects wishing to participate in the event, for registration purposes, at the time of the event announcement, in order to ensure participation in the event. The data subjects are employees of the BUD group companies and their relatives (children) or friends invited by them, and accordingly, the controller also processes the personal data of children, in each case, with the consent given by the lawful representative. You have the right to withdraw your consent to data processing at any time, in the case of processing based on consent, which does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of your consent until such withdrawal.

Please note that, for individual images, crowd and video recordings:

- Via the contact person before the event, or
- At the venue, to the event organizers

You can exercise your right to object to you (or your child) being included in the recordings. However, due to the large number of people attending the event and the group nature of the program, it may not be possible to grant this request, despite your explicit request.

You may request that your photograph not be used for the purposes detailed above at any time in the future. You will not suffer any disadvantage in connection with your objection. You can send your objection to dpo@bud.hu or send your signed statement to runwayrun@bud.hu.

In the request for deletion, we ask you for the same identification data as when you registered to give your consent. The data collected will be stored for a maximum of 30 days, until voluntary consent is withdrawn (cancellation). After this period, we will no longer store either your withdrawn personal data or your request for cancellation.

Please note that the processing of personal data provided by BUD in press releases after sharing on social networking sites is governed by the rules of social networking sites.

3. Data processors

The following act as data processors in relation to your personal data:

- Balatonman Triatlon Kft. (1036 Budapest Pacsirtamező utca 3-5.) - event organization
- Gergely György Zákány, sole entrepreneur (1174 Budapest, Bocskai István utca 63/1) - photographer and videographer.
- Zero Time Services Kft. (2013 Pomáz, Mikszáth Kálmán utca 36/4.) - web-hosting service
- FULLCON IT Development Kft. (1205 Budapest, Mártírok útja 100.) - web-hosting service operator

4. Recipients of the personal data and the categories of recipients

4.3. The Data Processors listed in section 3;

- 4.4. Given that the entry fee for the RunwayRun event is donated in full to the charities listed below, the charities may, upon request, issue a certificate for the donation to participants who specifically request it. To this end, BUD forwards the name of the data subjects (or the legal entity entering the competition), the amount of the entry fee and the e-mail address (only if a certificate has been requested by the data subject) to the foundation that receives the entry fee paid:
- SUHANJ! FOUNDATION (registered offices: 1137 Budapest, Radnóti Miklós utca 25. floor 3 apartment 2.; registration number: 01-01-0011161; tax number: 18139493-2-41)
  - MENTS ÉLETET NON-PROFIT FOUNDATION (registered offices: 1098 Budapest, Lobogó utca 10. III. fszt./2.; registration number: 01-01-0011554; tax number: 18284500-1-43)
- 4.5. Due to BUD's legal obligation to the data controller, BUD will transmit the data necessary for entry to the Airport Police Directorate (RRI), the Counter-Terrorism Center (TEK), the National Tax and Customs Administration (NAV) and the Constitution Protection Office (AH) for the purpose of carrying out background checks, in order to authorize entry. The authorities do not store the data, but have access to the systems to the extent strictly necessary for their work, as provided for by law.
- 4.6. In the current calendar year and thereafter, BUD may use the images of the participants of its events in its business communications, for the purpose of creating promotional materials related to the subject matter, forward them to third parties for the purpose of promoting and presenting its services and publishing them on its website and social media channels. With respect to public appearances, the footage may be used by BUD as illustrations to promote the event, for marketing purposes in publications, at events and for activities and through BUD's online and offline channels (e.g. campaign review press release and/or internal communication magazine, and the following social media platforms), in particular:

5. Transfer of personal data

No data is transferred to third countries or international organizations.

6. The storage of personal data, data security

The data provided during registration on the website is stored on servers provided by the data processor (the hosting room of Zero Time Services Kft., Drávanet data center, 1132 Budapest, Victor Hugo u. 18-22., 1138 Budapest, Váci út 188., operated by FULLCON IT Development Kft.).

The data required for entry, as well as photo and video recordings are stored on the data controller's own servers (Budapest Airport Zrt., 1185 Budapest BUD International Airport).

BUD, as Data Controller, must ensure the security and the lawful use of the data, by taking appropriate technical and organizational measures. BUD stores the data provided by participants and processed by BUD on its own on-site servers, in secure databases, access to which is limited to persons whose access to, knowledge and processing of the data is indispensable for the performance of their duties.

BUD takes reasonable steps to ensure that personal data stored by it is not accessible to unauthorized persons. It will only disclose data to another organization if required to do so by law or on the basis of an official request, if the legal conditions for doing so are met.

If the Data Controller is required by a court or authority to provide personal data in the course of legal proceedings, the Data Controller is obliged to provide the requested data to the court or authority in question, in compliance with its legal obligation. The Data Controller only discloses to authorities, if the authority has indicated the precise purpose and scope of the data, the personal data that is strictly required for the purpose of the request and only to the extent strictly necessary for the purpose of the request.

7. The source of personal data, refusal to provide data and consequences

The person directly registering and participating in the event is the source of the personal data.

The provision and processing of data required for entry to the airport is governed by the legislation referred to in section 2.1. Refusal of data processing makes entry impossible; the person refusing data processing thus cannot enter the restricted area of the airport and cannot participate in the event.

8. Automated decision-making (including profiling)

Automated decision-making, including profiling, does not take place during processing.

9. Data subjects' rights in relation to data processing:

- Right to information

You may request information from the data controller about the processing at any time during processing. The purpose of this notice is also to provide clear, concise, transparent and understandable information about the data processing activities of BUD.

- Access to personal data

You have the right to receive feedback from the controller on whether the processing of your personal data is in progress, and if so, the data subject is entitled to receive access to the personal data and the information specified in the GDPR. BUD will provide you with a copy of the personal data processed. BUD may charge a reasonable fee for any additional copies you request, based on administrative costs. If you have submitted your request electronically, we will provide the information to you in a commonly used electronic format, unless requested otherwise.

- Right to the rectification of personal data

You have the right to have inaccurate personal data concerning you corrected by BUD without undue delay upon your request.

- Right to the erasure of personal data, the right to be forgotten

You have the right to have your personal data erased without undue delay at your request, based on a submitted request, if one of the following grounds applies:

- The personal data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- You withdraw your previous consent and there is no other legal basis for the processing;
- You object to processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for processing;
- The personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- The data must be erased, in order to comply with a legal obligation under EU or member state law, which the controller is subject to;
- Personal data are collected in connection with the provision of information society services (conditions for children's consent);

- Right to the restriction of processing

You have the right to request that we restrict processing if one of the following conditions is met:

- You contest the accuracy of the personal data, in which case the restriction applies for the period of time that allows BUD to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- The processing is unlawful, you object to the erasure of the data and instead request the restriction of their use;
- BUD no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of processing, but you require them for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; or
- You have objected to processing; in this case, the restriction applies for the period until it is established whether BUD's legitimate grounds override your legitimate grounds.

If processing is restricted based on the above, such personal data, with the exception of storage, may only be processed with your consent, or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims, or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person, or for important public interests of the EU or of a member state. BUD will inform you in advance of the lifting of the restriction on the processing restricted at your request.

- Right to object

In connection with data processing based on the legitimate interest of the Data Controller, you may object to the processing if you consider that BUD may not be processing your personal data properly in relation to the purposes stated in this document. In this case, BUD must demonstrate that the processing of the personal data is justified by compelling legitimate grounds which override your interests, rights and freedoms or are related to the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

10. The exercising of data subjects' rights in relation to data processing and the related deadline

In order to exercise the rights of the data subject by electronic means, the enquiry containing the data subject's request must be sent to dpo@bud.hu.

BUD will comply with your request to exercise your rights within a maximum of one month of receipt. The day of receipt of the request does not count towards the deadline.

If necessary, BUD may, taking into account the complexity of the request and the number of requests, extend this deadline by a further two months. BUD will inform you of the extension, stating the reasons for the delay, within one month of the receipt of the request.

11. The right to effective judicial remedy

If you have any comments or questions about data processing,

- Please contact BUD's data protection officer at dpo@bud.hu

If you believe that BUD's processing of your personal data does not comply with legal requirements or has violated your rights,

- You may lodge a complaint with the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (address: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa u. 9-11; postal address: 1363 Budapest, Pf. 9., telephone: +36-1-391-1400; e-mail: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu, website: www.naih.hu) or
- You have the choice of bringing an action for the protection of your data before the competent court in the place where BUD is established or where you reside (for a list of courts and their contact details, please see the following link: <http://birosag.hu/torvenyszekek>)

12. The possibility to amend the data processing information

BUD reserves the right to unilaterally amend this data processing document without prior notice.
